Tone

Read the passage. Complete the organizer. Next record the tone and support your answer. Remember that there may not be information for all of the sections. Example: a setting of a dark night or bright sunny day may add to the tone, but sometimes the setting is not revealed.

Setting	The setting gives us clues about the tone.          Tone
Body Language	The body language tells us how the characters feel.          Tone
Character Saying	"Listen" to how and what the characters are saying.          Tone
Character Doing	There are clues in the character's actions. How do they act and react?          Tone
